From your editor ~

The month of March is designated as National Cerebral Palsy Awareness Month. National Cerebral Palsy Awareness Month is committed to raising awareness of the disorder as well as the ongoing research efforts being done to find new treatments and hopefully a cure.

Cerebral Palsy (CP) is a condition caused by damage to one or more specific areas of the brain. CP usually occurs either during fetal development, before, during or shortly after birth, or during infancy. CP affects a person's muscle tone, movement and motor skills. Many people with CP also have other developmental disabilities including; epilepsy, autism, blindness, hearing and/or speech issues. My parents discovered that this was my disability after taking me to a specialist in Iowa City when I was a toddler. Mom was concerned when her friends' children, who were my age, could walk, and I still could not. It was all in the Lord's plan for me.

And it has turned out to be a blessing in some ways. It has made me who I am. It is the reason I am able to take care of my Dad at home (as well as my mom). It is what makes me more empathetic with people. It is what makes me vulnerable. It is also what makes my life a challenge physically. Mine is a mild case, but it affects my body nonetheless. The level that you have at birth is the level you have throughout the rest of your life. As you get older, however, you may experience more health complications. Now I had hoped that when the doctor said older, he meant when I was in my 70's or older. Sadly, some of them are hitting me now,. :) At the tender young age of "25".

Thankful for you, my church family, who uplifts me in prayer, and who is there for me when I need a little (or a lot) of extra help.

Love and blessings to you all!

Miss Leanna
